Compeer Band Concert Is Splendid Success

Fair weather, good roads and the spirit of the season combined to make the Concert and Dance given at Compeer on December 31st, 1919, one of the happiest and most thoroughly enjoyed times ever held in that locality.

The Monitor Citizens Band were engaged to provide the musical part of the programme and they fully justified their reputation as a first class aggregation of musicians. The programme was of good length and was varied by a splendid rendition of the pianoforte Overture the "Poet and Peasant" by Mrs. F. M. Tarr, and by a piano duett by the Misses Deadmarsh. Practically every piece was rendered perfectly, but perhaps special mention could be made of the overture "The Holy City," with the solo by Benjamin T. Ulph, full band accompaniment. This piece was exceptionally well rendered and received hearty applause from the packed hall.

After "The King" had been played at the close of the concert, the floor was cleared and dancing held away until the first streaks of the New Day appeared in the east.

The Concert and Dance was without doubt a splendid success, the thanks of all being due Messrs Rudolph, C. Deadmarsh, McLaughlin, B. Sibbald, and Curley who spared no effort to make the affair well known and patronized.

The treatment of the boys of the band, while at Compeer, left nothing to be desired. They were practically handed the keys of the city, and told to help themselves. The friendship thus existing between the two villages could well be emulated by other similar places, between whom at present, nothing but enmity exists. We understand the Monitor Band is open at all times for engagements for Concerts or Dances calling for two to thirty pieces, and we hope that they meet with the success at other places as they did at Compeer.

Masquerade Dance of Veterans and Band, the Best Ever Held Here

Never before in the history of this village, has a more thoroughly enjoyed evening been spent in wholesome fun, than that of January 2nd, when the dance under the joint auspices of the Great War Veterans and the Citizens Band, both of Monitor, was held.

The frolic was a little late in starting, but when once it got under way it waxed fast and furious, until every person present was enjoying themselves to the limit.

The costumes worn on that evening reflected the greatest possible credit on the imagination and inventiveness of the wearers, and the judges had an extremely hard task in allotting the prize winners. Messrs A. Baxter of Monitor, Morris of Kirriemuir and Williams of Consort filled the arduous position of Judges of Costumes in a highly efficient manner and their awards met with the approval of the gathering. Following are various prize-winners:

Most Original Costume Mrs. J. Ehlinger
Best Comic Married Couple Mr and Mrs. J. McTavish
Best Dressed Couple Mr and Mrs. B. Ingersoll
Best Dressed Lady Miss B. Carroll

Best Dressed Gentleman Mr Clarence Hayes
Best Comic Lady Mrs A.J. Deadmarsh
Best Comic Gentleman Mr Harry Hayes
Best Patriotic Costume Miss A. M. Curtis

However, the judges confessed that theirs was no easy task, as practically every costume on the floor was worth of mention so those readers who were unlucky enough to be absent may judge for themselves just what a galaxy was on the floor.

Judging by the comments from time to time during the evening, and the numerous encores called for, the Band filled their part of the programme to capacity. Their rendition of the popular "Bubbles" waltz met with an enthusiastic reception.

Taken all round, the event was one of the happiest and jolliest of its kind yet held in district, and the community thanks the boys of both the War Veterans and the Band for a tip-top evenings entertainment.

Here's hoping we get more of them.

There are some first-rate stories in "The Better Yarn," by Arthur Greening (Jarrols) the kind of stories which you help laughing aloud over, even when in the dullest of moods. Here is one of his best:

During the war, a soldier was tried for assaulting a sergeant. He was asked by the prosecuting officer: "Now, please tell us at once, without any prevarication, did you or did you not strike the sergeant?"

The prisoner cogitated for a moment, then he answered, brightly: "The answer is in the infirmary" Turner's Weekly

Planning Work of 1920

The need of bringing the volume of production from the fields, the forests, the fisheries, the mines and the manufacturing industries of Canada to the highest possible point this year, and in succeeding years, is so clearly recognized by students of world finance and economics that it is not to be wondered at that they are so insistently preaching the gospel of greater production. There is danger, however, that this constant dwelling upon the need and duty of greater production may cause a feeling of impatience and resentment among those who are engaged in productive work and who feel that they understand their duty and appreciate their opportunities just as fully as do professors, editors, politicians and financial magistrates.

Farmers, in particular, are sick of hearing lectures and reading articles pointing out to them their duty in this matter. What they are much more concerned about is the inauguration of policies by the Federal Government which will have a practical effect in increasing agricultural production by making it reasonably possible for the workers on the land to secure the necessary machinery and capital to enable them to increase their operations.

Nevertheless, no intelligent farmer will do otherwise than welcome information from authoritative sources indicating the magnitude of the opportunity now open to farmers, livestock producers, and others engaged in various branches of food production. Like all good business men, the farmer must welcome information relative to the industry in which he is engaged.

Since writing the article which appeared in this column last week, certain events have transpired which only add force to what was there stated. Henry B. Thomson, who is chairman of the Canada Food Board during the war, has returned to Canada after spending eight months in England with the Canadian Trade Commission, and he brings first-hand information as to the demand for food products in the Old Land. Mr. Thomson is of the opinion that the farmers and livestock producers of the Dominion have the chance of their lives to establish themselves in special lines against all comers in the British markets. Canadian bacon, he says, has established itself there and commands a better price than the United States product. Of beef, the United Kingdom imports five hundred million hundredweights a year, and if Canadian exports were increased twenty times it would only just fill British requirements, not to speak of the great continental European markets which will probably be opened this year. In 1920, he reports, Great Britain will require two and a half billion eggs, while the largest export from the Dominion in any one year only totalled forty-five million.

The embargo on Canadian wheat shipments to the Washington government, and one of the immediate results is the sale of many millions of bushels across the line by the Canadian Wheat Board, and the raising of the price to Canadian millers from $2.31 to $2.80 a bushel, with corresponding increases in the price of flour and of bread to the Canadian people. But it means a better price to the Canadian wheat grower, and gives increased value to the wheat participation certificates held by him. It would likewise seem to foreshadow a good price for the 1920 wheat crop, and no very rapid fall to pre-war prices.

Canadian farmers have, therefore, a market at home and abroad for all the things they can produce, and at the world's highest prices. Unlike producers of some articles of commerce, they need entertain no fear of their products being a drug on the market, or of facing the necessity of selling at slaughter or bargain counter prices.

There is another reason why maximum food production will be good business for Canadians, individually and collectively, in 1920. Not only are they assured of adequate markets and good prices for all they can produce, but heavy production and large exports will enable them to buy more cheaply abroad. Canadians, of necessity, must buy largely in the United States. We buy far more from that country than we sell to it. To the extent that our exports to the United States fail to balance our imports from that country we must pay in good hard cash. Because of the adverse balance of trade against us the effect has been for some time past that it takes about $108.00 to $110.00 of Canadian money to pay for every $100.00 worth of goods purchased by Canada in the United States. This enormously increases the cost of everything American bought by a Canadian farmer. It increases the price he pays for machinery, for oils, for boots and shoes and clothing. By increasing production of those things from our farms, forests, fisheries and mines which the United States requires, we can increase our exports and thus remove this handicap which is now operating to the disadvantage of our people in the matter of their purchases, much the same as a very substantial increase in the protective customs tariff would operate.

These are purely business and economic matters to be taken into consideration, not only by farmers, but by all producers in Canada in the planning of their work for the year upon which we have now entered.

An Unusual Fruit Exhibit

Oranges grown and ripened in Western Canada are another and uncommon proof of its possibilities as a fruit growing country. An orange grown at Tuxford, a small town about ten miles north of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, is being exhibited in the window of a local store. The fruit, while not as large as the best California products, is considerably larger than the Japanese variety and apparently perfectly formed.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Ancient Glass Statues

Made of Green-tinted Glass of Local Manufacture.

Evidence that the manufacture of glass in Ceylon is no novelty has been discovered by Dr. P. E. Pieris, in the Jaffna Peninsula. The doctor discoursed on his discoveries at a recent meeting of the Ceylon branch of the Royal Asiatic Society. He declared he had found glass beads and glass fragments which proved the antiquity of the Ceylon glass industry and which, by their greenish hue, explained in his opinion the constant references in ancient Sinhalese works to emerald statues of Buddha. It was quite clear from Dr. Pieris' description that the statues were not emerald, but were made of green-tinted glass, which must have been of local manufacture. The glass beads which he had discovered were all of palpable antiquity, for he had found not only beads which were bored with the three holes converging inward in the usual fashion, but also beads which were not so perforated.

Third-Rail System In Belgium

Will Be Employed Except in Switching Stations

The Belgian Railroad Department is actively continuing its program of electrification, the first line to be tried being that between Antwerp and Brussels. The experiment will be made on a passenger service. A subcommittee, organized by the Minister of Railroads, has decided on the style of cars to be used and contracts will soon be ready. The third-rail system will be employed except in switching stations, where the overhead trolley will be employed. The actual trials are not expected to take place before the end of 1921, owing to the amount of work which has first to be accomplished.

SHORT OF BREATH Could Hardly Walk Without Resting

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is: "Are you short of breath?" Now, when the heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N.S., writes: "I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

ALERT ALTARIO

Many thanks to the readers of this column in Monitor and neighboring towns who kindly sent greetings at the festive season. Many came as a surprise—it is always agreeable to discover new friendships as the years roll by and this year Providence has favored us with the expressions of good-will from many sources. To answer each individually would be a long task and we take this opportunity of reciprocating heartily the kindly wishes for 1920 and pass on to everyone the old time-honored wish of bonnie Scotland—

"Heaven send ye aye as weel As we want ye, An' then ye'll dae'

The New year dawned quietly and uneventfully at Altario. The clerk of the weather did his best, and many of our folks danced the New Year in at Kirriemuir, while others joined in the revels at Compeer, to the strains of orchestral music that warmed the heart and compelled the feet to go with the music. We hear that this Band festival was thoroughly appreciated by everyone present and on that account, pass on to Monitor the congratulations due them for a most successful evening. The oyster supper was a fine idea and well arranged, the big crowd taking refreshments in parties. Everything went off without a hitch and all felt that the last night of the old year was one to be remembered.

The Country Schoolmaster

Renders Valuable Service for Which He Is Poorly Paid

The country schoolmaster is a very ubiquitous person. Wherever one may go, up and down the world, provided it be in a land where there is the smallest desire to learn anything, some trace of him is sure to be found. In English-speaking countries he is, of course, an institution, and this is especially the case in England. For, like many other "institutions" in England, the country schoolmaster possesses a long history and an honorable one. In all the centuries that intervened between the Council of Constantinople, in 381 A.D., a council which enjoined that the clergy everywhere should "gladly receive and kindly teach such little ones as desired to learn," down to the day, within the last fifty years, that elementary education was made compulsory, the country schoolmaster has never for long been wholly absent. There were always "little ones" that desired to learn, and there was always somehow, somewhere, someone to teach them. Now it was a chantry priest, now a village clerk, and now some poor scholar, who would teach the "childlike to write and rede, cast accounts and learn the accidence."

As to the attitude of the people toward the country schoolmaster, it has always been much the same. Is it not the great Dr. Johnson himself, a schoolmaster, who remarks somewhere, "What reverence is there in the word 'scholar'?" So the people of town or country, but especially of the country, whilst they have kept their schoolmasters poor, and often led them a sorry life enough, have, in their heart of hearts, had reverence, sometimes grudging, often quite spontaneous, for the man who could "teach scholars." The country schoolmaster has ever been something of a leader, something of a counsellor, something of a final court of appeal.

Today, in spite of the changes that new systems are bringing about, he steadily holds his own as all three, and many other things besides. For the country schoolmaster is, almost before everything else, a man of the countryside. . . . On great local occasions, he is ever to the fore. No village celebration but concludes with cheers for the schoolmaster, along with other local worthies. And then, in the long winter evenings, when he is not conducting the local choral society, or taking a hand in the local chess club, he is teaching an "evening class."

When the great war broke out, the schoolmaster was amongst the first to volunteer for service. He went to the war by the thousand, eagerly welcomed by those who had taken his measure. Justly, for, as that well-known authority Sir James Yoxall has said of him, "A teacher's habit of authority made him ever a natural leader in a tight corner." Today, when he is back again, he has just one special grievance. It is a very old one, and, hitherto, he has borne it with a strange patience. He has always been paid, not the most, but generally the very least that was possible, and he is coming to think, and to say, that it is about time such a state of things was changed. Those who know the country schoolmaster best are most inclined to agree with him.—Christian Science Monitor.

Another Irrigation District Proposed

Result of the Movement for General
Irrigation in Southern Alberta

Still further territory is being embraced by the exponents of irrigation in Southern Alberta. The latest report is that three new big irrigation districts adjacent to the town of Macleod, a few miles west of Lethbridge, Alberta, are now in process of organization.

Since the Alberta Irrigation District Act came into effect several irrigation districts have been organized in the neighborhood of Lethbridge, and these new projects are covering a yet wider field.

The largest of these new districts will embrace an area of 100,000 acres, north of the town of Macleod. This project has been outlined since the projection of the Lethbridge northern scheme, farther east, and these two projects will be supplied from the same ditch. Another project is outlined southwest of the town, and will supply irrigation to 40,000 acres. The third project is south of the town, and will irrigate about 90,000 acres. With the completion of these schemes Macleod will be the centre of one of the biggest irrigation sections in Western Canada.

These projects have all developed as a result of the movement for general irrigation of all irrigable lands in Southern Alberta. The surveys for many of the schemes have now been made. The Lethbridge Northern project has been developed to the stage where construction will probably be started this coming spring. The Taber irrigation scheme has been completed, and will be supplying water next summer to many farmers.

The Macleod projects are only getting under way and surveys will not be completed on these for some time. It is the intention, however, to proceed at once with the organization of the necessary districts and the election of trustees.

Building Activity

Great Demand for Houses and Small Business Properties

Throughout the Dominion firms interested in the building trade are unanimous in foretelling the opening of a bumper trade for the industry next spring, as indicated by the amount and quality of orders placed with them. The application for building permits, too, is largely on the increase, and whilst this year's totals in many localities doubled those of 1918, there is every reason to believe that 1920 will see a still greater proportional increase, and that the industry, sadly crippled during the war, and only partially resumed during the past summer, will forge ahead with the opening of spring.

Throughout Canada, and especially in the western provinces, there is a great demand for houses and small business properties, and contractors undertaking this smaller class of work are prepared to be very busy. Whilst there is also a good deal of larger work to be done, this will probably have to give place to the demand for residences and small business houses, and await the relief of the house congestion.

Motor Ship Crosses Atlantic

Took Cargo of Lumber Across in 27 Days

The arrival is reported from Waterford of a new four-masted schooner fitted with auxiliary motor power, the first of her type to make the Atlantic crossing. The vessel, the Bessie A. White, has a 200 horsepower internal combustion marine engine. She is fitted with suction gas plant and with this manufactures the gas which supplies her motive power. The schooner, which was built at Alma, New Brunswick, has a tonnage of 594 net, and is registered "A One" with the French Veritas. She took her cargo of lumber across the Atlantic in 27 days. Other vessels of her type are now being built, and the designers of them claim that they will bring about a revolution in the sailing trade in the near future.

So great is the propagandist power of the modern press that the wonders of the wireless are commonly taken for granted by the veriest child. Yet the resolution of the Venezuelan government to install a wireless apparatus in the environs of Caracas, the capital city, was of such tremendous importance and news value, that it occupied a good part of the front page of the Universal on October 16, the account being printed in large type and "featured" much as American papers have recently been "featuring" the League of Nations.

ABOUT YOUR CHILBLAINS!

What are they? A mild form of frostbite—a chilling of the part to such a degree that inflammation is set up, causing a tingling pain, excessive irritation and often smarting. Zam-Buk cures chilblains by drawing out the inflammation, thus ending the pain and irritation and reducing the swelling.

Miss Annie Leopard of Beaverdale, Ont., says: "I suffered agonies from chilblains and used many remedies, but nothing gave me any ease until I used Zam-Buk, which, after a little perseverance, completely rid me of this painful ailment."

Regular applications of Zam-Buk will prevent a recurrence of the trouble. Keep it handy. 50c. box.

Airman Discovers

Ancient City

Would Never Have Been Noticed on The Level

Lieut.-Col. J. A. Beasley gives in the Geographical Journal an interesting example of how photography from an airship can extend our knowledge. When making an aerial reconnaissance in Mesopotamia over territory occupied by the Turks, he took a series of photographs near Samarra, which shows distinctly the ruins of an ancient city extending twenty miles along the Tigris River and two miles and a half-wide, large enough to shelter easily 4,000,000 inhabitants. This city would never have been noticed on the level, since it is not marked by anything but scattered hillocks, although pottery and medals had been discovered on the site. But the photographs show clearly its whole plan, with its fortifications, canals for irrigation and streets.

Growth of One of the Western Provinces

Remarkable Expansion of Province of Saskatchewan Shown by the Official Report

The expansion of the province of Saskatchewan is illustrated in the annual report of the Department of Municipal Affairs just published, which shows that the number of rural municipalities has increased from two to three hundred since 1905. During the same period the villages have increased from 63 to 317; towns from 16 to 75; cities from 3 to 7, and school districts from 896 to 4,145.

Further growth is predicted by the Hon. Geo. Langley, minister of municipal affairs, who states "the development in municipal work and municipal responsibility is the logical result of the rapid growth and expansion of the province, and must continue so long as our population increases and new problems arise."

Woman Steeplejack

Mrs. Golda Weisella, said to be the world's only woman steeplejack, is painting the 195-foot steeple of an Oakland, Cal. church. Mrs. Weisella's husband is a steeplejack. Two years ago he went into the army, and during his service overseas the fair successor to his business kept on climbing her way into wealth, and on his return, a short time ago, the pair entered a business partnership. Attired in overalls, and with the aid of ropes and tackle that go with the trade, the two climb steeples together, make repairs or paint, and have bought a little home out of the proceeds.

LONG FACES

"Cascarets" for Liver and Bowels bring back Smiles

Turn the "kill-joys" out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach, and misery-making gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now, and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated, waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

British Sea-Going Spirit Undaunted

At a meeting in London, England, of the P. & O. Steamship Company, Lord Inchcape recalled the fact that about 7,000,000 tons of British shipping were sunk by the enemy in the war out of a pre-war total of 21,000,000 tons.

"But this," he said, "has not affected the determination of British ship-owners to maintain their position, nor has it broken the sea-going spirit of the British race. Given fair play and freedom from Government interference and control the British merchant marine will come out on top again."

A Happy Family

BY DR. A. C. BOWERS.

A happy family is one that can sit down to the table with keen appetites and good cheer. Plenty of the out-of-doors and cleanliness, inside and outside of the body, will make for health, wealth and happiness. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a headache to the most serious illness may result from allowing food to ferment in the intestines. The first thing to do in case you feel mean, logy, dull, perhaps feverish, is to flush the liver and kidneys, drink plenty of water, and take a dose of castor oil, or, something better, made of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and long sold by almost every druggist as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. This may save you from a fit of sickness, remove the poisons from the system and give the tissues of the body a chance to build up and resist disease.

People are realizing more and more that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances.

This can be avoided by stimulating the kidneys to increased action, and because of its tonic effect on these organs I would advise any one to get Anuric (anti-uric-acid) which is to be had nowadays for fifty cents, at almost any drug store.

Chinese Are Skillful Candy-Makers

The Chinese are very skillful in making confectionery. They are able to empty an orange of its pulp entirely and then fill it up with fruit jelly without one being able to find the smallest cut in the rind, or even a tiny hole. Indeed, they even empty an egg in this manner and fill it with a sort of almond nougat without one being able to find the slightest break or incision in the shell.

NOTHING TO EQUAL BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Alfred Naud, Natagan River, Que., writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and would use nothing else." What Mrs. Naud says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative, which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colic, colds, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
